Clerici Palace, Inner courtyard

Clerici Palace, in Milan, is considered a kind of Versailles of the city, and it has been bought by Clerici Family during the second half of VII century. It was beautified during the first years of VIII century and became one of the most elegant private mansion of the Hapsburg reign and pride for a Noble descent, that became the predominant one in the international politics field. Today is one of the most amazing place in Milan, and inside it, it is possible to visit what in 1942 became the “Ispi” office (International Politics Studies Institute) and the Tiepolo Gallery.. Long and narrow, 22 m x 5 m, golden and enriched by wooden curly decorations and tapestries, is covered by a fresco vault roof representing the Course of Sun Chariot by Tiepolo. The representation gallery is the result of harmony and balance between different art styles: the painting of fresco vault, the silky art of tapestries and the cabinetry of the wooden boiserie, finely carved and decorated.
